'You Can See The Regret': ICU Nurse On Patients Who Failed To Take COVID Precautions

"A lot of times before they're intubated — which means put on a ventilator because they can't breathe on their own — when they're still struggling to breathe, and they're saying, 'Well, I didn't know COVID was real, and I wish I'd worn a mask.' And then it's already too late," she tells NPR's All Things Considered. "You can see the regret, as they're struggling to breathe and it's finally hitting them that this is real. It makes me very sad."

Flying Taxis

The project is expected to create more than 100 jobs in Orlando, Lilium said.

The Orlando hub will mark Lilium's second globally — the first was announced for Germany in September. Lilium is a well-funded start-up, having received investment totalling $375 million from the likes of Chinese tech giant Tencent, early Tesla investor Baillie Gifford and venture capital firm Atomico.

Alongside Lilium, several companies are vying for a role in the nascent air taxi space — Uber China's EHang and German firm Volocopter, to name a couple of examples.
