Day Summary: Wow, the bulls are back! The buying campaign was on from bell to bell today and I was able to catch a good long with it. Looking back, it is very easy to say "I could have made _____ if I just held" but I executed my set up in the direction of the trend and help to my full preset TP. You can't ask for more than that so I was very happy with today's performance.

Grade: A

TradeJournal.co

1. play book set up - yes
2. trading with trend - yes
3. entry - aggressive but fakeout and low - good
4. managed the trade well with tick chart and the DOM - tough at times but I did believe I was on the right side of the trade, especially with fakeout entry and quick dip recoveries
5. exited at planned TP - two ticks below target line - good shiit!
